

COCKTAILS

Join us on a spirited journey from Undivided India to the first Copper Chimney in Mumbai in 1972, as we throw back & pay homage to our 50 years legacy and the iconic 70s.

THE FRONTIER MAIL

This drink is an ode to our founder, Mr. J K Kapur and his journey across the border during the partition, as he started from scratch, carrying only a few suitcases & a heart filled with memories of his mother's recipes. This captivating blend of kokum-infused tequila, with the timeless essence of the robust black cardamom, has been accentuated with a touch of orange.

CHANDNI CHOWK

FILMI IMLI

Many years before Copper Chimney, Mr. J K Kapur started his journey as a Bollywood film distributor and eventually ventured into producing films. This drink pays tribute to that timeless period in Bollywood cinema with a tamarind-infused whiskey, cola and soda, garnished with imli candy for that kick of nostalgia.

BOMBAY TALKIES

The first Copper Chimney was inaugurated by the legendary actor, the late Shri Dilip Kumar. This beverage is a nod to the colour pink that was loved by the legend himself. Gin infused with rose, vermouth, and tonic water, garnished with edible paper.

1972 WORLI

This iconic drink pays tribute to the inaugural Copper Chimney at Worli in 1972. A bold concoction of mace whiskey, and nori with a hint of garam masala, garnished with smoke, as a tribute to Copper Chimney, Worli, for being the first Indian restaurant with an open tandoor kitchen in the country.
